Day 4: Dubai- City tour- Desert Safari tour-

After being done with the morning breakfast, guests would be picked up by our tour representative for a half day city tour of Dubai. Now it is your chance to discover the traditional side of modern Dubai. The tour will start with the visit to Palm Jumeirah, which is also famed as the eighth wonder of the world. While on your drive, make a halt for a quick photo session at the Atlantis hotel. Post that, continue on your course to the mosque. Built in the year 1979 in the style of Fatimi mosques of Egypt, the Jumeirah mosque is amongst the prominent structures of the city. As you would be done with the visit to the mosque, proceed towards the famous Sheikh Zayed Road to admire the tallest building in the world; Burj Khalifa tower from a long distance.

Drive to the old parts of the city will pass through majestic palaces of the ruling family of Dubai. Next on the journey would be the visit to Al Fahidi fort and Dubai Museum. Al Fahidi fort is a prominent historic structure that is highly reminiscent of Dubai's illustrious past. Next in the itinerary would be the renowned gold and spice souk. Following it would be the visit to the souvenir shop. Here you can buy a lot of antiques, souvenirs and art & craft items. The city tour of Dubai will end with the final stoppage at the Burj Al Arab hotel.

In the second half of the day, guests would be picked up to enjoy a desert safari that includes a BBQ dinner and an Arabic Belly Dance program for the evening. You would be starting first with a thumping ride in the desert right over the sand dunes. Amidst this roller coaster ride, you can stop for clicking pictures. Post this, you would be moving for a short visit to Ali's Camel Farm. Later on, you would be arriving at the pre-booked desert camp. Do catch the sight of the beautiful desert sunset. Guests would be given a traditional welcome with Arabic tea, coffee and dates, as they will make their arrival at the desert camp. Feel free to relax in the specially furnished Arabic tents while the traditional oven is lit in preparation of the dinner. You can even get a henna tattoo done or simply embark on a camel ride as the arrangements of the evening dance show and performance get fully done.

To make it an unforgettable evening, the highlights will include a Tannoura dance show and a belly dance performance to the beats and rhythm of Arabia. On the other hand, the evening cuisines will comprise a sumptuous three course barbeque meal teamed up with a variety of salad and meat. Post dinner, you would be driven back to the city hotel for an overnight stay.
