Close your eyes. What do you see when you think about Skåne? Undulating fields of rapeseed, villages where the roads winds its way between half-timbered houses and long sandy beaches. If so, then you're quite right. But here in Northwest Skåne we have a little bit more of everything. There's drama here, too. Söderåsen features wild primeval forests and Kullaberg draws visitors who come to marvel at the precipices and caves.

Welcome to the Helsingborg Family!

Sofiero Palace

With its romantic grounds, Sofiero Palace makes for a popular destination. The grounds are perhaps best known for their unparalleled rhododendrons, with an incredible 5,000 bushes bursting into flower in the spring. The fairytale of Sofiero began in 1864, when Crown Prince Oskar and his wife Sophia had their summer residence built here. In 1905, Oskar – by now King Oskar II – gave the palace to his grandson Prince Gustav Adolf and his bride Princess Margareta as a wedding present. This is when the gardens literally flourished. Princess Margareta was a keen and creative gardener, and it was her who first laid out the grounds that we can enjoy to this day. She arranged flower beds and gardens, had paving laid and wasn't afraid to get her hands dirty. Every summer, the Crown Prince couple travelled from Stockholm with their four young princes and Princess Ingrid, who eventually became Queen of Denmark. When Margareta died in 1920, Gustaf Adolf carried on the work in the garden, particularly with the rhododendrons. The palace was the summer residence of the Swedish royal family up until 1973, when it was given to the town of Helsingborg. This small palace, which lies like a jewel amid the extensive lawns, is home to a restaurant where the food is prepared by some of Sweden's finest chefs. There's also a café with views of the Öresund Sound and Denmark.

Fredriksdal museums and gardens

Nowhere in Europe will you find anywhere to match to Fredriksdal. This is Skåne in miniature, with 360,000 square metres of unique settings, buildings and gardens. The history and diversity of the countryside are kept alive with care here. With its museums and gardens, Fredriksdal offers interesting activities for all ages, all year round.

Take an exploratory walk, watch the animals grazing or join the manor maids on an interesting tour. Buy a bag of old-fashioned sweets in the old town quarter or your favourite rose in the flower shop. Find answers to your questions about nature or folklore, or just lie back and relax in a hammock.

With its historical parks and gardens, houses and farms, animals, meadows, woods and pastures, all situated around an eighteenth century manor house, a visit to Fredriksdal is like making a journey back into the past.

Ven island

In the middle of the Øresund strait, right between Sweden and Denmark, lies the idyllic island of Ven. The astronomer Tycho Brahe was gifted the whole island by King Fredrik II after he discovered a new star in the Cassiopeia constellation. Here he constructed one of the most interesting buildings of the time: the Uraniborg castle, a subterranean observatory called Stjerneborg and a renaissance garden. The New Church of Ven has now been turned into a museum, the garden has been renovated, and in the observatory you can watch a light and sound show. The light in Ven is said to have a unique quality, which has attracted many an artist and ceramist to the island. Take a tour among the studios and workshops, and meet with sculptors and silversmiths along the way.

Ven is a small island, and the best way to get around is by bike, which you can easily rent when you get off the ferry.

Mölle

At the foot of Kullaberg lies the old fishing town of Mölle. At the end of the nineteenth century, Mölle became known as the location of the first unisex public bath in Sweden, where ladies and gentlemen in striped bathing suits would go swimming in the sea. This was a great sensation that attracted curious and adventurous guests from all over, and there was even a train from Berlin. "Sinful Mölle" was thus established. To this day, Mölle is a popular tourist destination with its population tripling in the summer months.

S:t Petri Church

This world-famous church is an architectural masterpiece that exudes simplicity. It was designed by Sigurd Lewerentz and consecrated in 1966. It is one of Sweden's most accomplished churches in architectural terms. The entrance can be quite hard to find, but it was deliberately built that way, to represent the difficulty of finding the gateway to the kingdom of God. The font is made of a white mussel shell from the Indian Ocean, placed on a raised area that resembles a rock. All the details have been carefully planned and executed, and all symbolize an event or aspect of Christian faith. Guided tours on request.

Horse riding

Wherever you look in Skåne, you're bound to see a horse. This is our favourite beast of all. There are many different breeds of horse, and plenty of places where you can ride. As well as the sheer joy of riding, getting up on horseback is a perfect way of coming into close contact with nature, and of covering lots of ground in a short time. Even if you're a complete beginner, you can go riding through leafy beech forests or along the beach. Amiable Icelandic horses that jog along at a moderate pace are available at Spelmansgården in Ängelholm or Kullabergs Islandshästar. The scenery and rich wildlife of Söderåsen are best enjoyed from a western saddle on a good-natured Haflinger horse from Söderåsens Turridning. Söderåsens Forsgård have activities for everybody and therefore the horse riding and their farm is accessible also for disabled persons. Westfield Hästsafari, between Båstad and Torekov, offers riding at Hovs Hallar, through apple groves and at full gallop. If you'd like to try riding an Ardennes horse, you can do so on Hven. Many of the tours welcome children and novices. All you need to bring is a pair of

Canoeing

The River Rönne winds its way through the countryside from Lake Ringsjön to the sea at Ängelholm. This stretch is 85 kilometres long, and you can paddle your way along through almost tropical scenery, and past areas with rich cultural traditions and towns. The peaceful journey is occasionally punctuated with rapids. There are plenty of things to see and do along the way. Some sections are ideal for families with children. You can choose to paddle for a few hours or a few days. One example is the trip from Gunnarödsbron/Stockamöllan to Rögnaöd/Djupadal, which takes around four hours. You can hire canoes and kayaks from various locations, and most hire companies also offer overnight accommodation. Stay in a converted stable or a 17th century cottage. Or why not get a whole bunch of friends together and hire a 20 or 12 man tent. If you want to spend the night in the great outdoors, there are places with shelters, toilets and firewood. For a particularly Swedish summer experience, combine a canoeing trip with hiring a sauna trailer. Take a hot sauna, followed by a dip in the river.

Life doesn't get much better than that!

Aquatic safari

When the seabirds circle and dive, it's a sure sign that there are porpoises driving the fish up to the surface. Porpoises look like dolphins, and are one of the smallest toothed whales at just 1.5 metres long. They live a fairly anonymous existence down in the depths, but you can now get the chance to see them up close. And zipping along in a RIB boat alongside Kullaberg is a highlight in itself. Upzone Upzone is an experience for all of you that likes to exercise, push the limits of yourself but foremost likes to have fun. Up among the treetops you can challenge yourself and others on four different courses with different difficulties.

In our parks you can ride the zip line, balance on logs, climb in nets and swing to get through the different courses. From 3 to 15 meters up in the air you can enjoy our adventure forest.

Upzone is unique in the Skåne region and offers a creative park in a fantastic area near Ängelholms Hembygdspark.

At Upzone Adventure Forest you get to a chance to experience the nature from a new perspective through different challenges up to 15 meters from the ground. You have the opportunity to push your limits and challenge yourself through increasingly difficult obstacles. To successfully walk on a rocking bridge 7 meters up from the ground gives you a nice feeling and a rush of adrenaline.

The park consists of four courses, Funzone, Fitnesszone, Adventurezone and Riskzone. The higher the difficulty the higher from the ground. In our park you can crawl through tunnels, swing to the Tarzan net, ride the zip line to the next tree or why not the sledge 6 meters over the ground or jump the Big Jump from 15 meters.

At Upzone the safety always comes first. Before the adventure begins we have a thorough briefing and introduction to ensure that all know how to operate the equipment up among the treetops.

Children aged 6-7 years are allowed to climb Funzone, children between 8-10 are allowed to climb Funzone, Fitnesszone and Adventurezone. Children aged 11 or above are allowed to climb all our courses but, all children not 12 years of age are never allowed to climb on their own, they must climb with an adult. That means that it takes one adult per child aged 6-7 and one adult per 2 children if both are 8 years or older. The adult must be climbing with the children. From the date you have turned 12 you are allowed to climb on your own with the permission of a caretaker.

The Continent? Yes, you read that right.

Geographically, northwest Skåne is part of Continental Europe.

Hallandsås and

The sea ensures a marine climate. Grapes thrive in the Skåne soil and with the long growing season. They are used to make red, white, rosé and sparkling wines. Take a wine tour, stopping off at the vineyards of Arilds Vingård (Lillavägen 71, Arild), Villa Mathilda (Stora vägen 158, Arild), Kullahalvöns Vingård (Lyckerisvägen 52, Nyhamnsläge), Vejby Vingård (Västra Ljungbyvägen 319, Vejbystrand), Södåkra Vingård (Gamla Södåkrav. 298, Jonstorp), Aplagårdens Vinhus (Ekebyvägen 27, Helsingborg) and Vingården i Frillestad (Rycketoftavägen 37, Påarp). Kullasparris

It is hard to find places like Kullasparris. Åsa and Johan Sjöblom searched for a long time after a place in Kullabygden where they could finally get started with organic asparagus cultivation. They succeeded, and the farm shop is now situated in Hässlebo. The idea of Kullasparris was to develop a business that besides cultivation and the sale of asparagus, also has the possibility to offer food - and people interested in cultivation the opportunity to cultivating, reap and learn more about asparagus. Because of that, you can find something so different as a safari. Not tigersafari

- asparagus safari. During an asparagus safari you will get your questions about asparagus cultivation answered, and much much more.

Mölle Krukmakeri and Café

At the foot of Kullaberg, in the small village of Mölle, you can find Möllle Krukmakeri and Café which stands for the irrational, the slow and perhaps somewhat recalcitrant. Besides the ceramics workshop, there is also a café. This little café serves thousands of guests every year, and what's served is simply odd beautiful music in all shapes, cookies and all sorts of bad treats that would make a weight watcher fade, hot soups. fresh pasta, lasagnia and greek moussaka, and some truly strong Chilistew. All this together in a environment you would hopefully not find anywhere else. In the serviceteam you will find some really happy girls, young nobles and some scattered hillbillies.

GOLF

Familjen Helsingborg

We've never been known for our modesty. But now we are really going to brag. The fact is that Northwest Skåne has the world's second highest concentration of golf courses. Only Florida has a higher concentration. We have 25 golf clubs and 31 courses within 40 minutes of Helsingborg. And these aren't just any courses. They vary in character between coastal and inland, with differing degrees of difficulty to suit everyone from beginners to professionals. When you want to play a round, it is always an advantage if the course isn't covered with snow. Snow is rare this far south in Sweden, so most courses are open all year round.

Allerum Golfklubb

The golf courses at Allerum offers 27 holes combined with a beautiful nature experience. The course called "Ängsbanan" is designed by Hans Fock and opened its first nine tees 1993 and was completed with another nine tees 1995.

The other course, "Parkbanan", is a 9-hole course that's also open for players without a green card. A big driving range, several putting greens and a restaurant are also available at Allerum.

Åkagårdens Golfklubb

Åkagårdens Golfklubb ligger mitt på natursköna Bjärehalvön. En kuperad parkbana med milsvid utsikt över det Skånska landskapet. En välskött bana, par 71, och anläggning med restaurang och övningsområde.

Banan, som är en 18-hålsbana av landskapskaraktär, är kuperad och från ett flertal ställen har man en vidunderlig utsikt över Skålderviken. Den kuperade terrängen har gjort layouten på ett flertal ställen riktigt spektakulär. Banan är ca 5600 meter från gul tee och 4600 meter från röd.

Båda slingorna börjar och slutar vid klubbhuset och det finns därför goda möjligheter att bara spela nio hål eller kanske ytterligare nio hål efter en lunch i den trevliga golfkrogen. Från det trivsamma klubbhusområdet som omfattar kansli, omklädningsrum, shop och golfkrog är utsikten över landskapet betagande. Det finns golfbil att hyra. Endast softspikes är tillåtna. Klitterhus

With its traditions beginning early in the 20th century, our historic seaside hotel is right on the beach in the beautiful bay of Skälderviken. For many years it has been a natural meeting place for the residents of Ängelholm who enjoy swimming, a walk on the sand, and the chance to have a drink and a good meal. Because the hotel setting is as close to the beach you can come without getting wet, the feeling is really “living by the sea” and is most keenly felt and heard by the sound of the waves which are on the doorstep. This has always been known to bring a peacefulness and calmness which sharpens the mind and senses.

One of the benefits that Klitterhus has by not being a large hotel is its cosiness. With just 14 double rooms, the atmosphere is very warm and personal.

All rooms are restored and redecorated in light, modern colours, although the original styling and feel is always kept in mind and can be found in the details. Most of our rooms face the sea with a breath-taking view overlooking Kullaberg and towards the Danish coastline.

Why not try a couple of relaxing quiet nights in our comfortable beds, where the only sound you hear, is the sea lapping at the sand outside your window?

The Vault Hotel Hälsingborg

If you look up the word “vault” in the dictionary, you will see that one of the definitions is “a secure room in a bank in which valuables are stored”. And you may well have known that already. Whether you did or not, it is not unreasonable to ask what that has to do with a hotel in Helsingborg, Sweden. Quite a lot, actually, as The Vault Hotel is built on an authentic bank vault from the beginning of the last century. From the time the building itself was a bank. But if you hear a tinkling sound today, it probably isn’t change being counted – it’s more likely to be ice cubes landing in a glass to chill it for your Manhattan.

Welcome to The Vault – the hotel that is steeped in roots and traditions. The hotel see everyone who visits them as their friend, no matter whether you have just dropped in for an espresso, a few olives and a cold beer in the trattoria, are here for a meal in the restaurant, or intend to spend the night sleeping soundly in one of our sumptuous beds.
