THE CITY

anderm/Shutterstock.com

Even though Gothenburg is the second-largest city in the country, it still breathes small-town charm and a friendly, laid-back atmosphere. The sea and nature are just around the corner and you can reach the idyllic archipelago in no time. At the same time, the city offers everything you could possibly expect from a modern destination, and most major tourist attractions are within walking distance.

A walk around the compact city centre will take you to shopping malls, arcades and small independent shops featuring local Gothenburg brands in fashion and interior design.

The city has become a top spot for foodies and is famous for its first-class seafood, and you can enjoy everything from food trucks to classic neighbourhood eateries or Michelin-starred fine dining establishments here.

When it comes to accommodation, you can choose from trendy boutique hotels to simple budget options, hostels, spa hotels and everything in between. There is something at every price range and for every taste.

Gothenburg offers everything from exciting museums, a good mix of shopping, beautiful nature to family-friendly activities and historical sites as well as a vibrant nightlife. Let yourself be charmed by the people and the city's own special character and vibe.

DO & SEE

trabantos/Shutterstock.com

Nature is just around the corner in Gothenburg, and distances are short, making it easy to combine bustling city activities with tranquil moments in the archipelago. How about a shopping spree, a visit to a museum or the large amusement park Liseberg, followed by a swim in the sea on the very same day?

The Göteborg Opera

With a unique mix of opera, contemporary dance, musicals and concerts, the Göteborg Opera is profiled as a modern and innovative opera house. You will be entertained by famous actors, directors, soloists and conductors from around the world, and see productions that attract international attention.

DINING

Ryzhkov Photography/Shutterstock.com

Gothenburg is synonymous with great food; the freshest ingredients and the tastiest dishes from land and sea. Seafood is highly recommended in Gothenburg, and whether you choose a prawn sandwich in a café or a perfectly cooked halibut in a fine dining establishment you will discover that seafood does taste better when it is caught so close to your plate. Enjoy the whole range from relaxed neighbourhood pubs and family-friendly cafes to trendy eateries and gourmet restaurants.

This section guides you through popular choices for Swedish food, seafood and international gems.

Putamadre

With an exquisitely crafted atmosphere, authentic period decor and staggering attention to detail, Puta Madre is Gothenburg's premiere Mexican food establishment and a highlight in the city's gastronomic scene. Hemma Hos

The dishes are inspired by traditional Swedish fare, from the far north to the southernmost tip. Always with their special west coast twist and occasionally with a sprinkling of exotic spices from around the world. Hemma Hos believe in keeping things simple, so you won't find "frittatas" and "arugula" on their menu, but you will find hearty omelettes and rocket salad.

Their trademark side-dish sized portions invite you to treat your taste buds to a culinary journey through Sweden.

SHOPPING

Robert Kneschke/Shutterstock.com

Gothenburg has plenty of great shopping. The mix includes small independent shops, modern department stores and gallerias - everything within walking distance.

For independent shops try the neighborhoods Magasinsgatan for trendy, local brands and Haga for cafés and small shops selling everything from olive oil to interior design or vintage and a cosy atmosphere.

Well-known Gothenburg fashion brands include Nudie Jeans, Dr Denim, Velour, Emma & Malena, Twist & Tango and Jumperfabriken.

Below is a selection of the largest malls and department stores.

Nordstan

Nordstan is the largest indoor shopping mall in Scandinavia. It's situated in the centre of Gothenburg, and holds three floors of shops. All the major chain stores such as H&M, Åhléns and Lindex are to be found here. It contains a wide selection of interior decoration, toys, sports goods, electronics, music, restaurants and cafes.

The Market Hall

The Market Hall called Saluhallen is the biggest indoor market in the city. Here you will find everything from spices, coffee, cheese, fruit, fish, meat to other delicacies from all over the world. There are around forty shops and places where to eat. This lively market is the ideal places for foodies!

City Centre

Few other neighbourhoods have as many different shops as the city centre. Nordstan, Arkaden, the department store NK, and Kungstorget with the Market Hall are all great places to shop. From the latter, follow the three parallel pedestrian streets: Södra Larmgatan, Vallgatan and Kungsgatan to Magasinsgatan.

Stroll along the first two and browse Swedish fashion brands like Tiger of Sweden or Filippa K, but also small independent shops featuring interior design, home decor and kitchen items. Don't miss the "secret" lane Victoriapassagen, between Vallgatan and Södra Larmgatan. The cosy oasis emits a lovely scent of coffee and chocolate, thanks to the chocolatiers at Flickorna Kanold and the original Da Matteo cafe.

Kungsgatan features mostly Scandinavian high street brands such as H&M, Gina Tricot and Din sko, while Magasingatan is the home of many Swedish brands like Velour and Acne, but also interior design and vintage fashion.

Haga & Linné

Haga is conveniently located within walking distance from the city centre; if you arrive by tram you can get off at the stops Hagakyrkan or Järntorget. The area is between Vasa and Linné, and the main street Haga Nygata stretches from one end to the other.

A shopping spree is not complete without a proper coffee break, and Haga is perfect for the occasion with its many cafes lined along Haga Nygata. The selection of shops is varied, with everything from a hatter to an independent toy store and a local marzipan and chocolate maker. You can also find interior decoration, fashion, antiques, tea, spices and olive oil.

The neighbouring Linnéstaden, commonly known as Linné, is laid-back with plenty of local charm. By day a tempting mix of independent shops and cafes, and by night a bustling borough with eateries and bars.

Avenyn

Kungssportsavenyn, commonly known as Avenyn, stretches from the bridge Kungssportsbron by the canal to Götaplatsen and the Museum of Art, the City Theatre and the Concert Hall. The main boulevard is busy all day until late.

The side streets have a lot to offer, especially the ones towards the Vasa neighbourhood. Smaller independent shops and restaurants are also found along Södra vägen.

One of the latest additions on the main boulevard is Kopparhuset, a galleria where you can take a look at Tommy Hilfiger's American denim fashion, or the flagship store of Swedish high street brand Linde. The Nespresso Boutique is another highlight.

Both the Gothenburg Museum of Art and the Röhsska Museum of design has great museum shops featuring books, design items and prints.

TOURIST INFORMATION

RPBaiao/Shutterstock.com

Passport/Visa

Sweden can be visited visa-free for up to 90 days by citizens of Australia, New Zealand, Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, Malaysia, Israel, UAE and most countries in America. If you are unsure whether or not you need to apply for a visa, we recommend contacting the embassy or consulate in your country. International (non-Schengen) travelers need a passport that is valid for at least 3 months after the end of their intended trip in order to enter the Schengen zone. Citizens of Schengen countries can travel without a passport, but must have a valid ID with them during their stay.

Airport

Göteborg Landvetter Airport is an international airport, situated 20 kilometres southeast from Gothenburg. It takes about 20 minutes to travel to city centre from the airport.

It is easy to travel to and from the airport with the bus service called Flygbussarna. The journey takes approximately 25 to 30 minutes and departures up to every 12 minutes. You can take the bus right outside the terminal building and it will take you to the city centre. The final stop is the main bus station Nils Ericssonterminalen in central Gothenburg. Tickets can be bought directly on the internet (www.flygbussarna.se/en/Landvetter), at the airport, at resellers like 7-Eleven and Pressbyrå or from the ticket machine by the bus stop at the airport. You can also buy tickets on-board but only with credit/debit cards.

Taxi is located outside the arrivals hall. The taxi companies often have fixed price when travelling between the airport and city centre, always ask about the price before travelling. There are several major taxi companies to pick from:

Sverigetaxi Göteborg, Telephone: + 46 (0)31 100 100

Taxi 020, Telephone: +46 (0)20 93 93 00

Taxi Göteborg, Telephone: +46 (0)31 650 000

Taxi Kurir, Telephone: +46 (0)31 27 27 27

If planning to rent a car, there are several companies like Avis, Budget, Enterprise, Europcar, Hertz and Sixt at Göteborg Landvetter Airport.

Best Time to Visit

There are four seasons in Gothenburg; the colourful yellow-red autumn, the rather mild winters compared to the north of Sweden, the spring when the light slowly returns after a dark winter and summer with light evenings. Every season has its charm but in general, May to September is the best time to visit Sweden. The summer is the peak season for tourists when people from all around the world enjoy the long, sunny days when the sun sets late in the evenings. This is also when locals and tourists enjoy various musical and cultural events that Gothenburg hosts every summer. The picturesque archipelago is also perfect to explore on a warm summer day. The Swedes really embrace summer and the sun to the max and generally take yearly vacation (four or even five weeks) between mid-June and mid-August.

Public Transport

and ferries.

In Gothenburg, public transport is easily accessible and reliable. Västtrafik operates the public transportation and they run the buses, trams

When travelling in Gothenburg, you can use the same ticket for trams, buses and ferries. You can buy your ticket at any Västtrafik's sales outlets as well as kiosks like Pressbyrån and 7-Eleven or the grocery stores. You can also buy your ticket with cash or card on board (this does not apply every transport). On the trams, you can buy your ticket on board with coins or card from the ticket machine and on the boats (southern archipelago boats), just pay your ticket with cash or card to the staff on board. If you take the river boats, you can buy your ticket from the staff on board but they only accept cards. However, on the city buses you cannot buy tickets on board, so make sure you have bought a ticket before boarding.

If you have a smart phone, you can download for free Västtrafik To Go app, which is an easy way to buy single, period and day tickets. (Available for Android and iPhone)

Gothenburg is a bicycle friendly city, with good bicycle paths, so why not do as many locals do, go by bike.
