Surrounded by vineyards and with over 30 bodegas (wine cellars) devoted to the art of making sherry and brandy, Jerez is a place steeped in history. The aristocratic city has an ancient heart, unusual museums, an atmospheric gypsy quarter and some outstanding architecture is also the cradle of flamenco, the home of the magnificent "dancing" Andalusian horses and the capital of motorcycle racing.

THE CITY

Homo Cosmicos / Shutterstock.com

On streets lined with orange trees and soaring palms, the historic centre is awash with magnificent palaces. Its architectural heritage spans a Moorish fortress, Mudejar churches, Renaissance, Baroque and Neoclassical façades, and splendid ironwork balconies.

Jerez's architectural beauties are complemented by hundreds-year-old traditions, captivating the travelers with tours through the city's history of sherry-making arts and local folklore, in a pulsing city that lies in the heart of the province of Cádiz.

DO & SEE

spanishsnapper/Shutterstock.com

Jerez De La Frontera is a captivating and historic city. The acclaimed capital of Flamenco, sherry and baroque horsemanship traditions offers plentiful entertainment options, as well as many culturally enriching opportunities.

Wander through the Arabesque city-centre and its beautiful architecture, feel the scent of grapes and wine in a local bodega, enjoy a performance of flamenco or a show of Equestrian Art: Jerez can offer this and much more.

Alcazar

11th-century Moorish walls enclose a mosque converted into a stunning chapel. Here you can find Arab baths with star-shaped skylights,

DINING

asife/Shutterstock.com

Bearing the vestiges of the Andalusian cuisine, Jerez blends its rich, traditional flavours with local specialities in which sherry comes as a welcomed ingredient and the finest seafood arrives fresh from the nearby towns.

The main concentration of restaurants sits along Calle Consistorio and Plaza Vargas, serving the best of the regional cuisine.

Some of the most popular dishes include riñones al Jerez (kidneys braised in sherry), caldereta (stews), and rabo de toro (oxtail).

Across Spain is very common to lunch at 3pm or dine after 10pm, but a few tapas and a couple of glasses of a full-bodied Manzanilla usually go in between to keep the hunger at bay.

TOURIST INFORMATION

Airport

Stacked sherry barrels greet arrivals at Jerez Airport, which is located 8km northeast of the city. Buses, trains and taxis are available for transfers to and from Jerez outside the terminal building.

The cheapest solution would be opting for means of public transportation. The bus line M-050 connects the city to the airport and tickets can be bought on the bus:

www.cmtbc.es

The train journey to Jerez De La Frontera (train line C-1) takes approximately 9 minutes:

www.renfe.com

You will find a taxi rank outside the terminal building and the journey takes about 20 minutes.

Alternatively you can choose to rent a car with these car rental companies located at the airport:

Passport / Visa

Spain can be visited visa-free for up to 90 days by citizens of most European countries, Australia, New Zealand, Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, Malaysia, Israel, UAE and most countries in America. If you are unsure whether or not you need to apply for a visa, we recommend contacting the embassy or consulate in your country. International (non-Schengen) travelers need a passport that is valid for at least 3 months after the end of their intended trip in order to enter the Schengen zone. Citizens of Schengen countries can travel without a passport, but must have a valid ID with them during their stay.

Best Time to Visit

Although it's quite popular to visit Jerez in July and August, these months can be very hot. You'll find the best weather during spring (April to June) or in early fall (September). Jerez holds some popular festivals: Flamenco Festival in February, Jerez Horse Fair in May, and Jerez Sherry Festival in September. If you plan on visiting during these periods, remember to book in advance.

Public transport

The city's historic centre is small and sights are located within walk distance. A local bus service also operates in and outside Jerez De La Frontera, and the main bus station is located in the city-center, where you will find detailed information about routes and timetables.

Buses run to Cadiz, Seville, or to many of the picturesque pueblos blancos (white towns) and coastal towns. Frequent trains leave for Cadiz and Seville.

Alternatively you can book Tour por Jerez, an open-top sightseeing bus that loops around the main sights:

Taxi

Taxis provided with a green "Libre" ("free") sign can be hailed either on the street or at taxi stands. Prices can vary between drivers and there are also additional fees for baggage and night-time transfers.

Pharmacy

Town centre pharmacies operate on an out-of-hours rotation and details of the one on duty are posted on the pharmacy's windows.

Pharmacies can be found easily thanks to the green "Farmacia" sign and green cross on the outside.

Farmacia Lorente:

Open Monday - Friday 07:30-22:30, Saturday - Sunday 09:00-22:30

Avenida de Europa, Jerez
