THE REGION

Natalya Rozhkova/Shutterstock.com

The Northern Black Forest is a popular tourist destination, with some of the most beautiful German landscapes and landmarks located in this region. The spa town of Baden-Baden offers plenty of opportunities for relax, while the city of Karlsruhe is a cultural hub and the Rastatt District is a heaven for outdoor enthusiasts. There is no shortage of shopping opportunities or picturesque cafés and restaurants offering local specialities. To make the most of your time in the Northern Black Forest, travel by train or by car along the scenic Schwarzwaldhochstrasse, making stops along the way to explore the wonderful nature and pretty villages. This region is full of beauty and culture, waiting for you to come and explore.

DINING

PosiNote/Shutterstock.com

In southwestern Germany, many meals are influenced by nearby France or Switzerland, but you'll find some dishes that are typical to the region. One of them is Maultaschen, which look like over-sized ravioli filled with meat and vegetables. Some say that monk's invented this specialty to disguise their meat during lent. Meals are usually accompanied by regionally produced beer and wine.

La Casserole (Baden-Baden)

In spite of its French name, La Casserole serves not only European food, but also authentic regional dishes and wine. The must-try is the "flammkuchen", the Badisch variant of pizza.

DISTRICT RASTATT

chbaum/Shutterstock.com

The Northern Black Forest is an attractive destination with a distinctive landscape and a wide variety of recreational activities. Follow the nature trails of the PAMINA Rhine Park, taste local wines in the Ortenau region, explore the Black Forest National Park and visit picturesque villages and impressive castles. But mostly, be amazed in front of the beauty of this region and make long-lasting memories here.

Hiking Trails

The Northern Black Forest features beautiful hiking trails dotted with historical sites and offering breath-taking views. One of Germany's highest rated premium trails is the 110 kilometer long Murgleiter, running from Bad Rotenfels to the Schlifffkopf peak near Baiersbronn. In alternative to the Murgleiter or as a continuation of it, you can go on a hiking adventure on the famous Westweg, the Black Forest's oldest trail, which goes from Pforzheim to Basel and crosses the Rastatt District for its 2nd and 3rd stages.

Internet: www.murgleiter.de

Cycle Routes

Many scenic cycle routes cross the Rastatt district, such as the 130 km long PAMINA Rhine Park route, the Hofladentour and the Tour der Murg, which follows the course of the eponymous river. Visit the website below for more information about these cycling routes of the Murg Valley.

Black Forest National Park

The Black Forest National Park was founded in 2014 as the first national park in Baden-Württemberg. It is located inside the Central/North Black Forest Nature Park and is divided into two parts, the northern part being situated in the Rastatt district. The park covers an area of 10,062 hectares and extends along the Schwarzwaldhochstrasse between Plättig and Alexanderschanze. Much of the park's wildlife is allowed to evolve freely, without human influence. Here, natural evolution takes precedence over exploitation, and visitors to the park get the unique opportunity to experience the transformation up close.

Central/North Black Forest Nature Park

This huge nature reserve is a paradise for all those who wish to experience wildlife in its natural surroundings - all year round. The main purpose of the Central/North Black Forest Nature Park is to preserve the beautiful and pristine landscape and to enable tourists and locals to discover the Black Forest in an ecofriendly way.

PAMINA Rhine Park

An entire region as museum: this is the idea behind the PAMINA Rhine Park. It is neither a nature reserve nor an open air museum, it's a cross-border project along the river Rhine. The picturesque alluvial landscapes between Karlsruhe and the southern Rastatt district are the main showpiece. Further attractions include ten themed museums, two conservation centers and numerous other interesting sites along the way. The area can be explored on foot or by bike, and covers 850 km sq.

In Rastatt, you can find information about the PAMINA Rhine Park at the Riedmuseum.

Rastatt Residential Palace

The baroque palace in Rastatt was modeled on Versailles and was the first of its kind to be built in Germany. Most of the impressive building has been preserved in its original state and is an authentic and unique example of an early 18th century princely residence. The palace includes also two museums: the Military History museum and the Memorial to Freedom Movements in German History.

Unimog Museum

For more than half a century, the Unimog was an exciting part of the history of utility vehicles. In Gaggenau, where the Unimog was manufactured for more than 50 years, the Unimog Museum invites young and old to see and discover what the vehicle was all about. Enjoy the interactive exhibition of the Unimog, from the prototypes to the new generation, including cutaway models and vehicle parts, photos, films and stories. You can also book a guided tour and experience the uniqueness of the Unimog sitting in the passenger seat.

Kaltenbronn

Kaltenbronn is characterised by an unspoiled landscape with high moors and forest moors, as well as rare flora and fauna. Thanks to the extensive hiking trail network and the plank paths over the moors, the site has become a favorite destination in the Black Forest region. In winter, the area transforms into a popular ski resort. Moreover, the information center in Kaltenbronn hosts an interactive exhibition about the area that fascinates young and old.

Wine Experience

The Rastatt district includes part of the Ortenau Wine Trail, 100 kilometers of vineyards and wine makers. It goes without saying that the area lends itself to hiking and wine tasting. The trail goes from Gernsbach to Diersburg, passing by castles, palaces and beautiful landscapes.

Parallel to the Ortenau Wine Trail runs the Baden Wine Route, offering more tasting opportunities and scenic views. Typical wines of the region are Müller-Thurgau, Riesling and Pinot Noir.

Alt-Windeck Castle

In the 12th century, the Windeck lords built a castle on a hill southeast of Bühl to serve as lodgings, fortress and symbol of their claim to power. Because of the cold wind, the inhabitants nicknamed their new home "Wind-Eck" ("wind corner"). The castle is now in ruin but it remains an impressive sight to visit. From its tower, open between April and November, one can enjoy beautiful views of the countryside.

Schwarzach Cathedral

The Schwarzach Cathedral, or Münster Swarzach, is located in Rheinmünster and is one of the great artistic treasures of Baden-Württemberg. Characterised by baroque farm buildings and a splendid monastic gate, it was the cathedral of a former Benedictine abbey and it dates back to the 9th century. After a devastating fire in 1299, the monastery was soon restored and the new building solemnly consecrated in 1302. The consecration, called "Schwarzacher Kirwe", is celebrated each year on the third Tuesday in October.

The Schwarzach Cathedral is now a popular venue for concerts, offering top-class artists, excellent acoustics and an extraordinary atmosphere.

Schwarzwaldhochstraße

The most famous scenic road in the Black Forest is the Schwarzwaldhochstrasse, which stretches from Baden-Baden to Freudenstadt (highway B500). On a clear day, the road commands fabulous views over the Rhine plain and the Vosges mountain range. One of the most popular stops along the way is the Mummelsee, a glacial cirque lake providing endless opportunities for outdoor activities.

Gernsbach

The “pearl of the Murg Valley”, as Gernsbach is also known, has an eventful past. Imposing monuments in the historic center bear witness to the wealth of long gone days, when the Murg raftmen drove the oak logs over the Murg and the Rhine all the way to Rotterdam. Charming half-timbered houses, sparkling fountains, the ancient walls and the old town hall, with cafés all around, make a visit well worthwhile.

Gernsbach is also a hikers' paradise, featuring the Gernsbacher Runde, a circular route running some 42 kilometers long around the town, and the Gernsbacher Sagenweg (Legend path), a pleasure hike of about 5 km that will fascinate young and old with its stories.

Schwarzenbach Dam

Located inside the North/Central Black Forest Nature Park and built between 1922 and 1926, the reservoir between the Schwarzwaldhochstraße and the Murg valley is the largest lake in the northern and central Black Forest. The water is directed to the power plant in Forbach (Rudolf-Fettweiswerk/EnBW) to generate electricity. The 400-meter long gravity dam is still considered today as a pioneering achievement in German barrage construction. Because of its idyllic surroundings, the lake with boat rental is a favorite destination in the northern Black Forest.

Racecourse Iffezheim

Three times a year, the racing festivals in Iffezheim transform the idyllic town into an exciting venue. The horse races are a charming mix of elegant flair and funfair, thrilling bets and relaxation in beautiful surroundings. Edouard Bénazet, the founder of the world-renowned Casino Baden-Baden, inaugurated the racecourse in 1858. The course is one of the most attractive and well kept in the world.

Wooden Bridge in Forbach

Despite its span of 37,8 meters only, the roofed cantilever bridge in Forbach is one of the longest of its kind in Europe. The wooden bridge is practicable and looks much today as it did in 1778. It was damaged after WWII, then moved in 1954-55 and rebuilt following the original drawings.

TOURIST INFORMATION

Olena Yakobchuk/Shutterstock.com

Passport / Visa

Germany can be visited visa-free for up to 90 days by citizens of most European countries, Australia, New Zealand, Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, Malaysia, Israel, UAE and most countries in America. If you are unsure whether or not you need to apply for a visa, we recommend contacting the embassy or consulate in your country. International (non-Schengen) travelers need a passport that is valid for at least 3 months after the end of their intended trip in order to enter the Schengen zone. Citizens of Schengen countries can travel without a passport, but must have a valid ID with them during their stay.

Best Time to Visit

Summer is the best season to see the Black Forest Region at its best, but it's also quite busy. Spring and autumn still offer acceptable temperatures and beautiful landscapes, but be prepared for some rain. Of course, winter is the ideal time to visit if you're into winter sports. Remember to bring very warm clothes, as in this period of the year can be quite cold.
