BEACHES

Discover The Palm Beaches

We are The Palm Beaches, so whether you're looking for water sports and activities, or simply a quiet spot to relax in the sun and listen to the waves, we have 47 miles of beautiful beaches for memorable fun-in-the-sun experiences. We are truly the Coast with the Most!

Coral Cove Park

Snorkeling. Volleyball. Music Venue. One of our more northern beaches, this one cannot be missed if you enjoy a quieter beach but still want the benefit of great snorkeling. With 600 ft. of guarded sandy real estate for you to enjoy, this is a must see in The Palm Beaches. Amenities include: Parking, BBQ grills, lifeguards on duty, Showers, Picnic Tables, and Restrooms.

Phil Foster Park

The Underwater Snorkel Trail is one of the world's premier dive spots for both experienced scuba divers and beginner snorkelers alike. Yahoo

Travel recently named Phil Foster in its Top 12 Snorkeling Spots. The trail spreads across a two-acre area beneath the Blue Heron Bridge spanning the Lake Worth Inlet. Underwater photographers delight in the abundance of unique marine life, with frequent visits from stingrays, eels, giant starfish, brightly-colored tropical fish and even an occasional octopus or manatee. Three submerged sculptures of hammerhead sharks, donated by artist and West Palm Beach resident Thomas McDonald, seem to invite visitors to post with them for underwater "shark selfie" photos. Amenities include: Snorkeling, Boat Dock, Parking, BBQ grills, lifeguards on duty, Showers, Picnic Tables, and Restrooms.
